

WE ARE LOADED

Cornell has it. I want it. Cash. They should reprioritize at least $7000/year just to me because I am worth it. I could be out in the real world making $150,000. What does Cornell think I am, slave labor? They should realize what a privilege it is to have me here.

Prima Donnae
School of Financial Assets

CASH-5AM

Are we so greedy that we need to try and extort money from Cornell? It is a privilege to be here to study. Cornell did not have to choose us. We chose to come here knowing the benefits and risks. We are not employees. Honestly, we do not want to be treated like employees.

This poster was made by 5am Productions. No graduate students were harmed or charged 1.15% of their income to create this flier. Please do not take this down.

If you want a copy, email cash@drakos7.net